As you know, I am still at Moody Bible Institute, although it is not for very long. (Cue the warm up note for "Pomp and Circumstance".) It has been a full three and a half years, and a sizable portion of said time has been spent with the Moody Symphonic Band, my supporting community and loving friends.

And it is with this musical family that I now have been given the opportunity to pack up fourteen days' worth of clothes, grab my violin, fly over the mildly scary ocean, and arrive in Greece, where we will be performing!

Not only is Greece exciting as the seat of the Hellenistic culture that fundamentally inspired almost every aspect of Western culture that we know today, it also has opportunities for our Symphonic Band as a country that knows very little about God, Christ's saving works, and the hope of grace.

With under 1% of the population being evangelical Christians, this tour to Greece is to be used as an outreach opportunity as well as a ministry of encouragement to the believers who call Greece their mission and their home. And for this, I ask that you would pray for me and the band as we prepare for Greece:

- Pray that everyone would raise enough money,
- Everyone would be healthy (always need prayer for that one),
- Our tour will reach out to those who have never heard the Gospel,
- We will be able to minister to the believers in Greece

If you would like to support this ministry with prayer and/or finances, please complete the enclosed Ministry Trip Response Card and mail in the envelope provided directly to:

CRT Department- Moody Bible Institute
Moody Symphonic Band
820 N. La Salle Blvd.
Chicago, Il 60610

If you are participating financially, you may do so by check, payable to Moody Bible Institute, or by credit card. Tax-deductible receipts will be issued to all donors. The cost of the trip is roughly $2200 per person. This includes training, travel, and ministry expenses. **In the event I do not go on the trip or raise money over what is required, the funds will be used to support similar missions projects and administrative expenses and will be under the complete discretion and control of the Moody Bible Institute. Therefore, your contribution is non-refundable.

You should also draw a pictorial representation of yourself on the envelope so that I can recognize you and save the picture to remember you by forever.

Thank you for being someone that I turn to for prayer and support, and I ask that you would pray for the Moody Symphonic Band and its ministry in Greece in the spring as we seek to bring God glory through our music.
